

SEMINAR ENERGY MARKETS

Prof. Dr. Grimm (Energy Systems and Market Design, University of Technology Nuremberg) together with FAU Erlangen-Nuremberg is offering an interdisciplinary seminar on energy markets entitled „Geopolitics, the Twin Transformation, and the Future of Value Chains“

in cooperation with various industry partners in the summer term 2026.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Block course in the summer term 2026
- Combination of theory and practice
- Supervision by experts from industry partners
- Current topics on:
 - (1) Artificial intelligence and future energy systems
 - (2) Transformation in energy-intensive sectors
 - (3) Interdependence of energy systems and the defense industry

- Industry partners (from previous seminars) :

- Open to Bachelor's, Diplom, and Master's students
(3 CP / 5 ECTS) as:
 - Seminar zur Wirtschaftstheorie (WiSo, Bachelor)
 - Seminar Energy Markets (WiSo, Master)
 - Energieökonomisches Seminar (WiSo, Bachelor and TechFak)
- Requirements: 15-page seminar paper, 20-minute presentation, peer review and active discussion participation
- Seminar language: English

Information on procedure, topics and registration:

March 4th, 2026 at 10:00 am via Zoom

You can find the link to the event on StudOn:

<https://www.studon.fau.de/crs660952.html>

If you have any questions, please contact:

Johannes Wirth (johannes.wirth@utn.de) and Ulrike Pfefferen (ulrike.pfefferen@utn.de)